Gippsland	Gunaikurnai Nations
Melbourne	Wurundjeri
Nanya Station	Mutthi Mutthi and Barkindji

Choose your ideal campus and community

Feel comfortable where you're studying and become part of our inclusive community.

For some, that starts with a warm welcome from your student mentor at Orientation Week or a course lecturer that knows you by name (for good reasons, we promise).

With multiple campuses stretching across Victoria, the hardest decision you'll have to make is which location is right for you. Discover the real community feel and authentic Australian experience of our regional campuses in Ballarat or Gippsland.

Or find yourself closer to the heart of the action at the Melbourne City Campus or nearby Berwick Campus to the east.

Wherever you choose to study, you will connect with people from all walks of life, and we will be there guiding you every step of the way.

Discover Melbourne

With campuses across the state of Victoria, Federation University is located in one of the most culturally diverse places in Australia – and even the world! – meaning you're more likely to feel right at home when you study with us.

Victoria's multiculturalism is concentrated in its vibrant capital city, Melbourne, which is renowned for its amazing food, iconic landmarks, thriving businesses and lively arts and events scene.

Whether you choose to study at one of our regional campuses or want to be closer to the heart of it all, you're never too far away from the excitement and diversity of Melbourne when you study at Federation.

Melbourne City Campus

Our Melbourne City Campus is the ideal place for international students to accelerate their career and experience the best of cosmopolitan Australia. With industry at your doorstep, you can network with employers and get real-world experience in Victoria's bustling centre of business, commerce and technology. Accessible and connected, travelling to campus is quick and convenient, with your choice of buses, trams and trains via Melbourne's excellent public transport system.

Berwick Campus

Located in Melbourne's outer south-eastern suburbs and just 45 minutes away from its CBD, Berwick Campus offers the peace to focus on your studies while never being far away from the excitement of the big city. With access to a library, student lounge, café, sporting facilities and more, you can easily find your way here and into Melbourne, with a train station located over the road.

Ballarat campuses

Located just 75 minutes west of Melbourne, Ballarat is home to our Mt Helen and SMB campuses. Most international students study at our flagship Mt Helen Campus, which boasts a wide range of innovative courses with state-of-the-art facilities, close connections to industry and classrooms surrounded by the beautiful natural environment. Some courses and units are taught from our historic SMB Campus, located in the heart of Ballarat city.

Gippsland Campus

Just 2 hours east of Melbourne and spread over 60 hectares of picturesque grounds in the town of Churchill, Gippsland Campus offers peace and nature with a side of adventure for those who love the outdoors. Experience the best of regional living, including a welcoming community, innovative learning environment and world-class research facilities.

Accelerate your career through Co-op

We're making paid work internships a reality and preparing all students for future employment through our Co-operative education model (Co-op). Based on extensive research and consultation with regional industry, Co-op will accelerate your career, placing you at the heart of education and industry.

Job-ready graduates

We're turning study days into pay days. Through Co-op, you won't just finish your course with theoretical knowledge – you'll have first-hand industry experience and feel confident to make the leap from study to employment.

How it works

Studying a Federation Co-op course means you'll complete paid work experience as part of your course. Our undergrad Co-op courses feature 60 days (or 450 hours) of paid internship while postgrad courses include 30 days (or 225 hours).

With flexible options to complete your internship – either full-time over one semester or part-time over the duration of your degree, we will arrange the internship for you through our network of industry partners. Students can access two forms of paid Co-op internship:

- Undertake an internship with an industry partner.
- Join a project team consulting with industry to solve a real-world employer problem.

Our Careers and Employability teams will be with you every step of the way, supporting you through the recruitment process too.

The best part? Co-op is part of your degree, so even while you're on paid internship, you can keep working in your casual or part-time job, as your student visa allowable working hours aren't impacted.

Learn more at federation.edu.au/study/why-federation/co-operative-education-model/

Note: Co-op paid internship courses are identified in this guide by the word CO-OP after each course listing.

Federation's Paid Internship Support Guarantee is available to international students for courses that require internships, whether these are labelled as Co-op or not (see page 13).

“Through Federation’s co-operative internships model, I secured a 60-day internship with a leading Australian steel manufacturing company. This internship has been instrumental in providing me hands-on experience in the manufacturing sector, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application. The industry experiences I have gained throughout this course have not only equipped me with practical skills but also exposed me to the workings of multinational companies, preparing me to be a globally renowned engineer.”

(Mechanical) (Honours)

Our Co-op degrees have paid industry internships (hello salary!)

Over 5,000 Federation students completed at least 9,000 internships hosted by more than 1,000 agencies in 2025.

Alternative entry options

Our pathways mean no one gets left behind, making university accessible for all.

If you haven't met the entry requirements for your dream course, don't worry. With a range of pathway courses now available, you can be studying at Federation sooner than you think.

English for Academic Purposes

(CRICOS CODE 113565A)

Begin an exciting journey with our English courses. As the national language of Australia, English is a key asset for unlocking success in your academic, professional and personal pursuits. In these courses, you'll perfect your skills in grammar, writing, reading, speaking and listening, as well as study literature and elements of Australia's culture.

This course is suitable for students needing to meet the equivalent of an IELTS 6.0 overall (with no band less than 6.0), IELTS 6.5 overall (with no band less than 6.0) or IELTS 7.0 overall (with no band less than 6.5) to commence study.

Higher Education Diplomas

Build a strong foundation for further studies with a Higher Education Diploma pathway. Our Diploma pathway courses include the first eight units from the first year of select undergraduate degrees in Business, and Information Technology. You will learn about the latest research and advances while honing your English and academic skills. Graduates will have a solid grasp of the foundational topics needed to succeed in their field and may jump straight into the second year of eligible undergraduate courses.

“At Federation, the small class sizes and practical learning environment enabled me to build strong relationships with lecturers and peers. The campus provided diversity, a helpful community and a strong focus on employability, making it the ideal choice for my studies. Lecturers brought their real-world experience into the classroom, and the balance between theory and practical application prepared me well for the workplace.

Participating in mentor and volunteer programs helped me adjust to university life and meet people from different backgrounds and lifelong friends. The skills I gained during the MPA program have been crucial to my success.”

"I heard about Federation at an international student conference in Cambodia. I was impressed by the support the university offered to international students – particularly with a lower cost and strong community focus.

The opportunity to immerse myself in a more authentic Australian culture in regional Ballarat also attracted me. It felt like the right place to achieve my academic and professional goals. The teaching placement allowed me to observe real classrooms, interact with practising teachers and understand the nuances of classroom management and student engagement within Australia.

The supportive community and access to resources helped me feel confident and connected, reinforcing my decision to study here."

“When I researched top Australian universities for engineering, Federation had positive reviews. The Co-op paid placement will help me understand the workforce and should provide job opportunities.

International students come from diverse backgrounds here, so it's been easy for me to integrate. The smaller classes help me to understand course content and feel connected to teachers.

Living in Ballarat is very quiet – it's a beautiful city. For a student, I think it's one of the best places you can be because it's not overcrowded.”

“When reviewing universities, I recognised that Federation provides placements with industry partners like IBM®, Kyndryl and Westpac, which are some of the biggest tech industries in my field. Developing good industry network connections during my placement is important to me.

Ballarat's not like the big city and it's a great place to focus on my studies. My advice to international students is to learn good English then improve your communications by spending time with other people. This will also help you to understand their culture better.”

Research that shapes lives

Make valuable contributions to your field of expertise by studying a Higher Degree by Research (HDR) with Federation at the master's or PhD level.

Our Graduate Research School (GRS) supports postgraduate students in building strong research skills and provides guidance to help them to transform lives and enhance communities. Working across our centres of collaborative and intensive research endeavour, you'll also harness technology and expertise to apply world-class research to real-world challenges, both regionally and globally.

Pursuing research studies with Federation's Graduate Research School offers you:

- Collaboration with academic staff who work alongside you and supervise you. Be mentored by a multidisciplinary group of esteemed academics who attract significant research funding and produce quality research outcomes.
- Professional development and connections – we focus on deepening your connection to industry and future employment opportunities worldwide.
- Authentic industry engagement – our Co-operative model supports real-world research projects co-designed with industry partners and opportunities for industry-based research internships.
- Scholarships and funding opportunities to help you start – visit our website to learn more and view available HDR scholarships.

Duration

A Master's degree generally takes 2 years to complete. This candidature period includes provision for up to one 6-month extension, or 12 months part-time equivalent.

A PhD generally takes 4 years to complete. This candidature period includes provision for up to two 6-month extensions, or 24 months total extension part-time equivalent.

Campus location

Our Master's and PhD courses are generally available at our Mt Helen, Berwick and Gippsland campuses throughout the year – with the exception of creative arts courses, which are available at our Camp St Campus.

The location will depend on the availability of a supervisory team at that campus. Some offshore delivery options are available; however, some restrictions apply for international students. Please contact the Graduate Research School for more information.

IELTS

Applicants to research courses will generally need to meet the equivalent of IELTS 6.5/6.0 to commence study.

Graduate Certificate in Research

If you don't meet the entry requirements for a higher degree by research, the Graduate Certificate in Research is a fantastic pathway. It helps you develop skills and experience in research, and on successful completion makes you eligible for entry into our research master's and PhD courses.

See page 4 for more information on this alternative entry option for research.

“The University provided me with helpful guidance and support before my journey to Australia and since arriving.

Student Support sent me emails and organised online sessions on various topics such as reading academic articles, writing essays and how to use University systems. They even organised a pick-up service from the airport for me so that I didn't have to worry about finding my own way to Ballarat.

Since arriving, I have connected with the Careers and Employability team and received learning support from peer mentors and learning skills advisors, which has helped me become more confident in my studies.”

“After accepting my course offer, I enrolled in Fedliving because I wanted a secure and welcoming place to live. It is only a three-minute walk to campus, which made balancing my studies and personal life so much easier.

Becoming a residential advisor, I have helped other students settle in, organised events and initiatives to build a sense of community. I introduced programs like the Walking Club and Garden Club, and helped with evenings where international students could connect, share experiences and celebrate cultural diversity.

Studying at Federation is one of the best decisions I've made, and living at Fedliving made my journey even more rewarding. It gave me a home, a community and a chance to grow, both personally and professionally. If you're an international student wondering where to stay, I highly recommend Fedliving. It's more than just accommodation – it is a place where you can truly feel at home and build lasting connections.”

Important information

Overseas Student Health Cover

Students must have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) before a student visa can be granted. Refer to your offer letter for information on how the University can purchase health cover on your behalf, through Bupa Australia Health.

If you wish to purchase your OSHC through another provider, please advise the International Admissions team of your membership details. Your OSHC must cover your whole student visa period, and you must not arrive in Australia before the OSHC start date. A full list of fees and information regarding coverage and exclusion is available at the website below.

International student fees

Course fees for tuition in this guide apply to international students commencing studies on-campus in Australia in 2026 only. The fees listed are an annual amount, and they are based on a standard study load per year. Any variation to the study load will result in an adjustment to tuition fees. All fees are subject to annual review and may be adjusted.

Course tuition fees cover the full cost of tuition but exclude cost of living (housing and food), medical insurance, textbooks, entertainment and non-compulsory course expenses.

Non-tuition fees listed on the administrative fees and charges website may be applied if relevant. These fees are subject to change.

Cost of living

The cost of living will vary according to lifestyle and location. It is generally more affordable living in a regional area such as Ballarat or Gippsland due to lower accommodation costs, compared to living in a major city. The Australian Government indicates the cost of living for 12 months is $29,710.*

Students are encouraged to prepare a budget factoring in additional expenses such as tuition fees, Overseas Student Health Cover, groceries, transport, phone and internet, and other study expenses.
